

HOME BUYER guide

Helpful information to simplify the mortgage process and help you achieve your personal and financial goals.

A smiling couple, a man and a woman, are standing in a bright room, possibly a home. The man is wearing a plaid shirt over a white t-shirt and blue jeans, and the woman is wearing a light blue shirt and blue jeans. They are both looking at each other and smiling. A large green overlay covers the left side of the image, containing text. The text is white and includes a main heading and four sub-sections with brief descriptions. The background shows a window with blinds and a wooden floor.

the 4 Cs of HOME BUYING

credit history

- What is the likelihood that you will repay the loan in a timely manner?
- What is your past payment history with other creditors?
- Is there a reasonable explanation for any challenges in your past?

rules of thumb

- No late payments in the last 12 months
- Multiple credit lines with at least 24 months of history
- At least one credit line with a limit over $1,000

capacity to pay

- Can you afford the new payment?
- What is the likelihood of being able to continue to afford this new payment?
- If you were to lose your current income stream, would you reasonably expect to replace that same income?

rules of thumb

- Two years in the same line of work
- Total home and credit payments of 40-45% of monthly, pre-tax income

cash

- Can you handle the payments if your income is stopped for any reason?
- Are you making a down payment? If yes, how much?

rules of thumb

- Have at least 3.5% of your purchase price to put down (actual down payment needed will vary depending on your loan program).
- Should have 2-3 months of house payments in your checking or savings account after closing.

collateral

- What type of real estate are you buying? (Condo, townhome, single-family, duplex, manufactured home)
- What is the current market value of the real estate, and how was this determined?

the 4 Cs of HOME BUYING

CREDIT: The five factors of your credit score

payment history (35%)

How you've paid your bills in the past. A long history of making payments on time and not missing payments can have the most positive impact on your credit score.

outstanding credit balances (30%)

The amount you owe relative to the total amount of credit available. People with the best credit scores tend to keep their balances low.

length of credit history (15%)

The age of your open credit lines - the longer your credit history, the better.

type of credit (10%)

Your current mix of credit cards, retail accounts, finance company loans, and mortgage loans - a diverse mix of credit is best.

inquiries (10%)

How many credit applications you're filling out. Multiple credit report inquiries can lower your score.

CAPACITY: How much can you afford to pay monthly?

A. Total Pre-Tax Monthly Household Income A. $ _____

Income that can be documented

B. Total Monthly Household Income x 45% B. $ _____

C. Total Monthly Debt Payments C. $ _____

Cars, credit cards, student loans, etc.

D. Calculate B-C=D D. $ _____

Maximum monthly house payment includes property tax and insurances

here's what you CAN EXPECT communication

We will notify you and your realtor when we:

- Receive your appraisal
- Submit your loan to underwriting
- Receive your conditions from underwriting
- Obtain a final underwriting approval
- Receive your closing disclosure (CD) from the title company

providing additional documents

It is very important that you provide all requested documentation in a timely manner. If you do not, your closing date may be delayed. Within a week from when you sign your loan application, you will need to send us all the requested documentation.

During the underwriting process, you may be asked for additional information referred to as "conditions." Please be sure to send us any additional information as soon as possible.

solidifying your homeowners insurance

It is your responsibility to obtain homeowners insurance. Your homeowners insurance must be in place at least 10 days before your closing date. For refinances, we will require a current copy of your homeowners insurance certificate and your insurance agent's contact information.
